1 October Survivors Have 4 Months Left to Apply to Nevada Victims of Crime Program

Friday, June 1 marks eight months since the Route 91 Harvest Festival shooting. Just four months remain for those who were present to submit an application to the Nevada Victims of Crime Program.

Funds from the program may help reimburse you for out-of-pocket expenses resulting from the crime such as medical bills or counseling co-pays not covered by insurance. Even if you don't have any eligible expenses now, survivors are encouraged to apply for the program before the deadline in case they incur future expenses that may be covered by the program. Please visit the Vegas Strong Resiliency Center at VegasStrongRC.org for information. One also may email the center at vegasstrongresiliencycenter@clarkcountynv.gov or call (702) 455-3433. Those outside the state may call at 1-833-299-2433. One also may visit the center, which is in the Lied Building, second floor, at 1524 Pinto Lane, Las Vegas, NV 89106. Its hours: 10 a.m. to 7 p.m., Monday through Friday, except holidays. On June 18, the hours will change to 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Watch to learn more: https://youtu.be/QJ_FwT5iR48.

The Vegas Strong Resiliency Center serves as a free, one-stop resource and referral hub for anyone affected by 1 October including survivors, family members of victims, responders and anyone dealing with effects from the attack including hotel workers, taxi cab drivers or bystanders who tried to help victims. Information about the center and an online intake form are posted at www.VegasStrongRC.org. The center also has a Facebook page at www.Facebook.com/VegasStrongResiliencyCenter.

Partnering agencies represented on site at the Resiliency Center include Clark County's Department of Social Service, the Legal Aide Center of Southern Nevada, the Nevada Victims of Crime Program, Nevada Division of Child and Family Services, Cark County Department of Family Services, Southern Nevada Adult Mental Health Services, and the LVMPD Victims Services.

The Vegas Strong Resiliency Center opened on Oct. 23, 2017, to provide ongoing support to those affected by the 1 October shooting. Since the resiliency center opened, it has served more than 6,000 people. Services include victim advocacy and support, grief counseling and spiritual care referrals, and technical assistance accessing online resources including FBI Victim Assistance Services for claiming personal items left behind at the 1 October concert venue.

Clark County is a dynamic and innovative organization dedicated to providing top-quality service with integrity, respect and accountability. With jurisdiction over the world-famous Las Vegas Strip and covering an area the size of New Jersey, Clark is the nation's 14th-largest county and provides extensive regional services to more than 2.25 million citizens and 45.5 million visitors a year. Included are the nation's 8th-busiest airport, air quality compliance, social services and the state's largest public hospital, University Medical Center. The County also provides municipal services that are traditionally provided by cities to 1 million residents in the unincorporated area. Those include fire protection, roads and other public works, parks and recreation, and planning and development.
