

Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada's

RESILIENCY & JUSTICE CENTER

Born Out of the Vegas Strong Resiliency Center

to Serve All Survivors of Crime

The Resiliency & Justice Center is a multi-agency resource dedicated to healing and support in Nevada. Our commitment is to all survivors of crime, emergency responders, and those impacted by the Route 91 Harvest Festival and UNLV shootings.

The Resiliency & Justice Center has been designated as the statewide victim assistance center. We are managed by Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada, and partner agencies include Clark County, the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, and the state of Nevada. We provide no-cost services to anyone impacted by trauma:

Advocacy & Support	Legal Services	Victims of Crime Applications
Referral Navigation	Behavioral Health Navigation	Support Groups
Integrative Services	Peer Support	Community Resources

Website: ResiliencyAndJustice.org

Email: resiliencyandjustice@lacs.nv.gov

Phone: (702) 455-2433 (AIDE)

